

Taiwo Jimoh

A man who master-minded the abduction of his brother, the wife and children has been arrested by detectives attached to the Delta State Police Command.

It was learnt that during the operation the victim's wife, Regina Ogana was shot dead.

The Delta State Police Public Relation Officer (PPRO), DSP Bright Edafe, in a statement yesterday said after the incident, the Commissioner of Police, CP Wale Abass, gave the Divisional Police Officer of Oreorokpe Station, CSP Paul Oboware, a marching order, to ensure every other person involved in the crime is brought to book.

Edafe, however said after intelligence led operation by the DPO, he stormed Ofuoma in Ughelli

Man kidnaps brother, children, kills brother's wife in Delta

North LGA, where two additional suspects, James Aboyo 21, and Solomon Gbolode, were arrested for their involvement in the abduction and killing of the woman.

Consequently, upon their arrest, the team proceeded to conduct search at the premises and hide-out of the suspects. One Blessing Deco 22, was arrested while other gang members who sighted the approaching police team, took to their heels.

Some items recovered from the suspects include; four AK 47 rifles, one pump action, one locally made single barrel cut-to-size pistol, 58 rounds of 7.62 live ammu-nitions, 13 live cartridges, five packs of improvised explosive devices, six detonators, and eight empty magazines.

During interrogation, the suspects confessed to their involvement in the crime and other kidnapping incidents in the state and they are assisting police in investigation, while manhunt for the other fleeing members of the gang is ongoing.

The CP however said war against kidnapping, armed robbery and other vices in the state has been reinvigorated in the as police is resolute in making the state a hostile ground for all persons of questionable character.

The suspects