

Bandits Abduct District Head, 50 Others In Fresh Zamfara Attack

Mariam Adebukola

13 mins ago

2 minute read

Gunmen suspected to be bandits have abducted at least 50 persons including a district head, women, and children in an

New Telegraph gathered that the bandits reportedly killed three others on Tuesday when they invaded the village, shot

The latest event is one of many kidnapping and killing incidents in the state by bandit terrorists.

Villagers involved in mining activities in the region, who confirmed the events mentioned that the armed assailants arr weapons indiscriminately and setting houses ablaze.

READ ALSO:

- Resurgence of Insecurity: Zamfara Parents Seek Dialogue With Bandits
- Army Rescues Six Abducted Zamfara Varsity Students
- Zamfara Govt Shuts Down Eight Cattle Markets Over Banditry Activities

The Village Head, Malam Abubakar Uba, who allegedly spoke to reporters regarding the attack, stated that the armed & kidnapped dozens of other villagers in the area.

“They stormed the village on a dozen motorcycles and their first stop was the District’s Head residence. A few of them before they entered the town and unleashed more harm” Uba stated