

Rivers: Suspected Cultists Arrested For Allegedly Burying Man Alive In Ogoni

8 hours ago

3 minute read

Two notorious kidnappers who allegedly abducted and buried alive, a former Community Development Committee (CDC) Chairman, Praise Daakin in the Koro Local Government Area of Rivers State have been arrested.

The state Commissioner of Police, Olatunji Disu, who disclosed this during his maiden news briefing in Port Harcourt, noted that the suspects collected N200,000 before burying him alive.

He noted that the suspects, Baridapdo Igia, 33, and Elvis Gordon, 26, who confessed to the murder, were the leaders of the Iceland and Deegbam Cult groups.

“Upon a thorough search, one locally made Pistol and a dagger were recovered, alongside the tricycle which is suspected to be stolen. The suspects confessed to having a model and have successfully robbed and stolen phones and valuables from unsuspecting victims.”