

...arrest man over colleague's death in Kano

The Kano State Police Command has arrested one James Ismail for allegedly committing culpable homicide at Fas Agro Sacks Company, Sharada in Gwale Local Government Area of the state.

The Commissioner of Police, Mr Hussaini Gumel, told the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) on telephone yesterday that the crime was committed at a factory in Sharada.

He said that at about 8:30 a.m., a distress call was received that there was a problem at Fas Agro Sacks Company.

He explained that on receiving the report, the Divisional Police Officer from Sharada led a team to the scene and discovered it was a fight between two staff of the company - Tukur Adamu, 32, and James Ismail, 32.

He said during the fight, Tukur Adamu fell down and was rushed to hospital where he was confirmed dead by a medical doctor.

cultists in police net

Police rescue Al-Kadriyah's 5 daughters
Abuia kidnappers