

Troops Clear Bandits' Enclaves, Neutralise Scores In Zamfara – Gen. Ahmed

Ibrahim Sidi Muh'd

January 28, 2024

2 minute read

Troops of Operation Hadarin Daji under 1 brigade of the Nigerian Army have successfully cleared some identified notorious bandits' enclaves in Zamfara the state.

Speaking during West African Social Activities (WASA) held at 1 brigade Garrison Gusau, the Commanding Officer, Brigadier General S. Ahmed, who was other security agencies had successfully prevented the influx of bandits' to the state.

General Ahmed further explained that the 1 brigade which also doubles as Operation Hadarin Daji in perfect synergy with other sister agencies, had conduct Kuyanbana forests where bandits and other criminal elements were denied breathe for their nasty activities.

He informed that other identified notorious forests and locations under the 1 brigade area of responsibility have been fiercely raided by the gallant troops m peace-disturbing activities have been combated to the barest minimum.

“It is worthy of note, that the 1 brigade has supported and contributed immensely towards the recruitment and training of the over 4,000 state government-in combat ready to assist the troops and other security agencies in fighting banditry in the state.

“It is also important to note that, the 1 brigade had conducted among other Civil-Military cooperation activities, offered free medical outreach across some c well as rehabilitation of accident and emergency wards of some general hospitals in Gusau”, General Ahmed further explained.

Earlier, while responding to questions fielded by newsmen in Gusau, Zamfara State capital, the Commanding Officer of the 1 Brigade, Brigadier General S. be fought to the extent that farmers will be able to work on their farms during the forthcoming wet season.

He further informed that more formidable fighting strategies will be introduced aimed at making Zamfara and the entire nation a crime-free state by the upc neutralized, enclaves were destroyed and firearms recovered.