Murder

A 50-year-old herbalist, Oluwo Samuel Monday, has told the police how he has killed two ladies, including the one for ritual purposes. Monday, who was arrested recently by the Ogun State Police Command for killing a lady, one Adijat S including a pastor of the Cherubim and Seraphim Church, Pastor Oluwalolese Abidemi Moses and Jamiu Yusuf, after purposes. Also arrested for the crime by the police are Akinwunmi Ifatosin, Sheriff Agbai and Osojiahen Alioneitour Government Area of Edo State, but came to perform money ritual with Monday.

Genesis

Explaining the circumstances of his involvement to journalists while he was being paraded by the Police, Monday said they wanted to do money ritual and after agreeing on price, because I knew what to use to make it potent, which was v can be used for the ritual, he promised to get it for me, but said it will cost me a lot of money and we promised to meet introduced him to another herbalist, Mr. Moses and "I paid them six hundred thousand naira that he requested." It was

Meanwhile, the Commissioner of Police, Ogun State Command, CP Abiodun Alamutu, described them as a gang of ritual killings but also deal in large sale of human parts. He said the suspects were arrested following a missing person report at the headquarters of the Nigeria Police in Atan-Ota on January 9. The deceased was invited on a date by one Pastor Oluwalanlola. In frantic efforts to locate her whereabouts, while her mobile phone had been switched off. The police boss revealed that specifically the Anti-Kidnapping Unit of the Command was drafted to unravel the mystery behind her disappearance.

The team was said to have embarked on a technical based investigation, which led to the arrest of the seven suspects in the eventual murder of the missing Adijat Sulaimon. He said: "Investigation later revealed that on 19th November, 2023, a contact named Monday a.k.a Oluwo Mandela to perform money ritual for them which is known as 'Oshole' that can produce wealth."

"Monday promised to do it for them and charged the duo of Sheriff Agbai and Osojiahen Alioneitouria, the sum of ₦100,000 to prepare the materials for the money ritual. "Monday in furtherance of his criminal intention later contacted one Oluwalanlola who was not new in the trade of human parts, to source for a lady between the age of 18 to 20 in order to deliver her virginity and her two wrists that will be used for money ritual.

"Oluwalanlola, who is an acclaimed Prophet of a white garment church located in Ibadan, Oyo State, contacted another Prophet, Mose in Lagos State, who is notorious in the supply of human parts for ritual purposes. "Prophet Jamiu Yusuf further contacted an herbalist at Atan Ota, Ogun State. Abidemi then requested for the sum of Six Hundred thousand naira to get a lady that will be used for the ritual."

"Monday negotiated for the sum of three hundred thousand naira for the human body parts with Abidemi, an herbalist in Atan Ota, to harvest human parts for sale, a business he has enjoyed the proceeds for the past three years. "Hence, on January 9, 2024, the lady was taken to Sun-shine Hotel, Atan Ota, and she was later taken to Abidemi's shrine at Igbo Olomi area of Atan Ota, Ogun State. The lady, now at large, and her dismembered body parts were taken to Abidemi's house at Atan Ota to meet Monday and Prophet Jamiu Yusuf to perform the body parts. "Monday collected the skull, two breasts, virginity and two wrists and other body parts of the deceased.

"Monday prepared the body parts in a local pot, and lighted firewood to burn it in Abidemi's house till the next day. "The firewood that was used to appease the spirit of the deceased during the process of performing money ritual. Oluwalanlola and Prophet Jamiu Yusuf of the deceased. "On January 10, 2024, Sheriff Agbai and Osojiahen Alioneitouria collected the money ritual from Monday in Edo State."

How trouble started

"Trouble was said to have started when Alioneitouri used the money ritual element as directed by Monday and they both failed to yield the expected sum of Two hundred million (N200,000,000), in seven days, despite having used it for three weeks. On the 3rd February, 2024, and 10 female handbags, two 25 litre gallons containing human parts, one axe, and two cement sacks were found at the shrine at Igbo Olomi, Atan Ota. "The relative of the deceased later came to the police station and identified one of the daughters, Adijat."
