

Pastor killed, burnt inside Osun church by his assistant

A pastor in charge of Celestial Church of Christ, Grace of Comfort Parish, Omitoto, in Osun State, Moris Fadehan, has reportedly been murdered inside his church by one of his assistants, Lekan Ogundipe.

According to sources, the suspect drew the attention of the people to the presence of the partly burnt remains of the pastor inside the church on Monday.

It was gathered that Ogundipe, after committing the act, ran to the house of the founder of the church, whose name could not immediately be ascertained, and told him that fire was burning the pastor.

When contacted yesterday, the Osun State Police Command Public Relations

Officer, Yemisi Opalola, confirmed the incident, adding that the command has commenced investigation into the matter.

3 die, 11 rescued as

The Lagos State Waterways Authority said a boat accident in Ikorodu, Lagos State on Monday resulted in the death of three passengers.

Eleven others involved in the accident were rescued, according to the agency.

Head, Public Affairs Unit, Lagos State Waterways Authority, Wuraola Alake, made the disclosure yesterday in Lagos.

"At about 7.17 p.m. on February 26, LASWA got a dis-