

Hardship: One Dies as Family Of 6 Eat Poisoned Dinner in Oyo

SOLA ADEYEMO

13 hours ago

1 minute read

Tragedy and confusion hit residents of Temidire Atoyebi area of Ogbomosho in the Ogbomosho South/ Ogo C Wednesday when a family of six ate cassava flakes as Amala for dinner and the grand daughter died as a res

Distress call from the house located along Ogbomosho-Iwo Road that evening drew the attention of the neig Victoria Paul Adewole) and the five children to the Ogo Oluwa Hospital, opposite Ogbomosho High School.

Their condition was so critical according to some sources that the management of the hospital had to refer Ogbomosho. Upon being rushed to the hospital, the grand daughter was rejected having been confirmed to

The mother and four other children were admitted and have since been under intensive medical treatment,