...truck crushes man to death

A BRT bus on Saturday hit a mother and her two children, leading to the death of one of the children.

Sunday Telegraph reports that the incident reportedly occurred in the PALMGROOVE area of Lagos State.

The mother and the other child were promptly taken to the hospital for urgent medical attention.

However, the operatives from the Ministry of Health and the Lagos State Police Command were at the scene of the incident.

According to the eyewitness, the BRT driver fled with the bus.

The Police Public Relation Officer (PPRO), SP Benjamin Hundeyin in a statement issued on Sunday said a BRT driver, Sunday Bukola 35, hit one Rofiat, her son Malik 5 and one Basit 2 when crossing the BRT lane.

Hundeyin said Malik died on the spot, and Rofiat and Basit were rushed to the hospital where they are currently receiving treatment for various degrees of injuries sustained during the accident.

While, the corpse of Malik had been deposited at the mortuary, while the driver was later arrested and presently detained.
