

Three feared dead, as Police destroy 4 gunmen camps in Anambra

• Foils planned attack on Orumba Communities

Okey Maduforo

AWKA

Three suspected hoodlums are said to have been neutralized during a raid on four scattered camps of the unknown gunmen yesterday in the Ogbunka community of Orumba South local government areas of Anambra state.

Consequently, the Police Command through the Joint Task Force on Security foiled a planned attack on two Communities in the area twenty-four hours before the execution of the plot.

It was gathered that the four camps had over thirty suspected gunmen some of them were those that carried out attacks on two Police stations at Awgbu and Neni in Anaocha and Orumba North local government areas.

Though the number of deaths and casualties could not be confirmed by the security operatives it is being reported that the bodies of three suspects were found boundaries of Ogbunka and Owerrezukala in Orumba South Council area towards the borders of Anambra and Abia states while scores escaped with bullet wounds.

The Police Public Relations Officer, DSP Tochukwu Ikenga said: "In the hunt for gunmen who attacked two Police Stations at Awgbu in Orumba North and Neni in Anaocha LGA in the last two weeks, Police-Led Joint Security Force was ordered by the Commissioner of Police CP Aderemi Adeoye to identify and destroy any camp being used by insurgents to launch attacks within the Command"