

Borno: 85 Terrorists Killed As Boko Haram, ISWAP Clash

Bolaji Jimoh

April 26, 2024

2 minute read

FILE – In this Thursday, Feb. 17, 2011 file photo, al-Shabab fighters march with their weapons during military exercises on the outskirts of Mogadishu. The group has for the second time this year shut down the main Twitter handle of al-Shabab, Somalia's al-Qaida-linked terror group, less than a week after the group's violations of Twitter's terms of service. (AP Photo/Mohamed Sheikh Nor, File)

Terrorist groups, Boko Haram and the Islamic State of the West African Province (ISWAP) on Thursday clashed in Borno state, killing 85 terrorists.

Zagazola Makama, a counter-insurgency expert and security analyst in Lake Chad made the disclosure in a post on his Twitter account.

According to him, the ceaseless, highly increased clashes of supremacy took place between April 24 and 25, 2024.

Makama further stated that as a result of the development, the rival part of Boko Haram has been forced off many islands and villages in the region.