

Six CAN Women Die In Taraba Road Accident

Peace Oladapo

18 mins ago

2 minute read

The residents of Taraba State were thrown into mourning on Sunday after a terrible car accident claimed the lives of six members of the Christian Association of Nigeria (WOWICAN).

New Telegraph gathered the accident occurred on Sunday afternoon when an 18-seater bus, in which the members of the group were returning from a symposium in Gembu on Saturday.

The members of the group were returning from Gembu, the headquarters of Sardauna LGA, to Jalingo, the state capital.

Mourners described the occurrence as a black Sunday for both the Christian community and the state as a whole.

Governor Agbu Kefas, who immediately expressed his condolences to the victims' families, described the news as painful Sunday in the state.

READ ALSO:

- Troops Rescue Three Kidnapped Victims In Taraba
- Suspected Bandits Burn Cows, Kill Driver In Taraba Community
- JUST-IN: Police Confirm Taraba Explosion

The governor further added that the circumstances surrounding their deaths were unfortunate, as they were returning from