

Abia: Police begin investigation into alleged murder of Nigerian employee by Chinese boss

Emmanuel Ifeanyi,
ABA

Abia State Police Command has confirmed that an investigation into the alleged murder of Miss Vivian Ogbonna, by her Chinese boss, Mr GZ Zhen, at Inner Galaxy Company, located in Umuahala and Umuorie Communities of Asa, Ukwa West Local Government Area of the state has begun.

Victim

Abia State Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), ASP Maureen Chinaka, told New Telegraph when contacted that the state police command got a report of the alleged murder and has begun an investigation into the case.

"We got a report alleging that Mr Zhen through his actions led to the death of one of his staff by the name, Vivian Ocheze Munachi. An investigation is ongoing," she said.

New Telegraph learnt that Miss Ogbonna, a female crane operator who hails from the company's host community, Umuahala was allegedly pushed down from the crane by her Chinese boss and eventually hit her head on a hard object and died.

The news of the incident caused tension in the company as youths of the community barricaded the gate insisting that they won't leave until justice was done over the death of the crane operator.

Eyewitnesses told New Telegraph that despite the news of the murder of the Nigerian getting to all security authorities in Ukwa, no arrest was made as the protesting youths were later forcefully dispersed by soldiers of the Nigerian Army guarding the steel company.