

Kano Mosque Attack: Death Toll Rises To 18

Muhammad Kabir

2 hours ago

1 minute read

Ganduje moves to rebuild burnt mosque

The death toll in the early morning Kano Mosque attack, last week has risen to 18, living remaining seven bedridden. Umar Ganduje, leader of the All Progressive Congress (APC), has promised to rebuild the mosque.

Already, Ganduje, has donated N5.3 Million with 50 bags of rice and other food items to victims of the attack, during his visit to Mohammed Hospital, yesterday. Our correspondent reports that 18 out of 25 victims of the attack have lost their lives and are still receiving treatment at the hospital.

The Ganduje delegation led by the chairman of APC in Kano State, Prince Abdullahi Abbas also gave N50, 000 to the families of the victims while the sum of N5 million was donated to members of their family in Gezawa town.

He prayed for the repose of the souls of those who died as a result of the attack and wished those at the hospital quick recovery. The mosque in Gezawa Local Government Area ablaze during a dawn prayer, and 25 people sustained various degrees of injury.
