

Three Die, 22 Injured In Osun Sallah Auto Crashes

New Telegraph-Admin

June 17, 2024

2 minute read

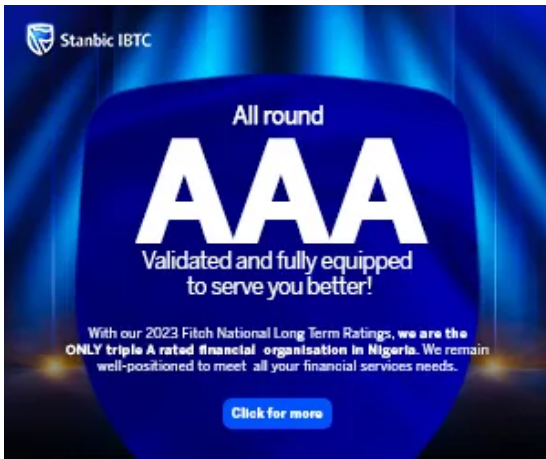

It was a black Sallah celebration for the people of Aagba Town, Boriipe Local Government Area of Osun State as three people died yesterday in an auto crash.

The accident it was learnt involved a private Toyota Camry with plate number AKD 810 QX and a motorcycle carrying the three persons. It was further learnt that the incident occurred around the Palace of Alaagba of Aagba by 2:50pm.

An eyewitness, simply identified as Shina said: "The driver of the car was over speeding with his Camry pencil when he crushed those on the bike and they died immediately.

"He ran and left the car at the scene. Before we know it, unknown people removed the plate number of the car."

Another accident occurred at Sekona town in Ede South Local Government Area of Osun State where an 18-seater Hummer bus with registration number, Lagos AGL- 664- BH had head-on collision with a Fiat van along the Gbongan/Osogbo road.

It was learnt that the driver of the bus dozed off which caused him to veer off his lane to collide with the van. When contacted, spokesperson of the Nigeria Security and Civil Defence Corps (NSCDC), Osun Command, Kehinde Adeleke confirmed the accidents.