

Anambra: Security Agencies Commence Manhunt For Killers Of 4 Persons

Okey Maduforo

12 hours ago

2 minute read

A combined team of Anambra State Police Command and the state Vigilante Services (AVS), have commenced manhunt for the killers of four persons who were killed during Monday's Stay-At-Home Order at Nnewi commercial city in Nnewi North Local Government Area of the state.

According to a release by the state Police Public Relations Officer, SP Tochukwu Ikenga and the Spokesman of the state vigilante outfits swore that the perpetrators will be brought to book.

They stated that major flashpoints have been taken over, including boundaries of the local government areas around Anambra, and that the whereabouts of the perpetrators are already being gathered.

“During the gun duel, one of the security officers was fatally hit by the bullet and due to the indiscriminate shootings by the

He also called on members of the public, especially the eyewitnesses to assist us with information on the ongoing onslaug