

Security Guard Allegedly Stabbed To Death While Mediating Quarre

New Telegraph-Admin

13 hours ago

2 minute read

The Lagos State Police Command has said that a private security guard, Yusuf Akadogo, has lost his life after be altercation.

Confirming the incident to the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) yesterday, the Command's Public Relations Office deceased security guard was attacked by an Okada rider, currently at large.

Hundeyin stated that the incident occurred on Thursday at the Idi-Araba area of the state. "On that fateful day, distress call from a concerned community member regarding a disturbance at Igbira Road, Idi-Araba," Hundeyir

He also said that police personnel swiftly responded to the scene, where an eyewitness provided an account of deceased security guard intervened in a minor altercation between the Okada rider and another individual.

