

8 Suspects Held Over Murder Of 400-level Student Of Alex-Ekwueme Varsi

Clement Nnachi

3 hours ago

2 minute read

No fewer than eight persons have been held at the Ohankwu Community in Ebonyi State and handed over to the state police for the murder of a 400-Level student of the Alex-Ekwueme Federal University, Ndufu Alike Ikwo, Ebonyi State.

It was learnt that the victim identified as Mr Marcus Okeke, was abducted by the suspects to an unknown destination on Monday of Accountancy before his untimely death.

The President of Ohankwu community, Mr Chibuike Igwe, made the disclosure in Abakaliki during an interactive forum where the deceased was discovered in a hideout last Monday.

He said that the community reported the matter to the police for proper investigation geared towards unraveling the killers of the victim, revealed that one OG lured the deceased to an unknown destination.

