

TASUED management calls for calm over death of final year student

Oladipupo Awojobi

The management of the Tai Solarin University of Education (TASUED), Jagun, Ijebu, Ogun State, has called for calm over an attack on its final year student, Fabiyi Hammed Ayinla of the History and Diplomatic Studies Department, College of Humanities on Wednesday July 3, 2024 that led to his death.

Public Relations Officer (PRO) of the University, Odubela Ayotunde, revealed in a statement yesterday, that the "University Management received reports of an attack on a student at the back of the CENVOS building on Wednesday, July 3, 2024, by some yet-to-be-identified persons believed to be members of a secret cult."

Odubela added that, "an examination just ended with 400 level students celebrating the usual 'logging out' in front of the lecture theatre when some unidentified persons carried the said victim identified as Fabiyi Hammed Ayinla, of the History and Diplomatic Studies Department, College of Humanities. He was eventually attacked.

"Fabiyi's colleagues assumed that the said persons were celebrating with him as it was also his birthday

"Suspicion arose, when he later attempted to resist being carried away

"Thus, they started dragging him towards the University CENVOS building. The security personnel on the ground immediately alerted the security unit, who responded immediately"