

Gunmen rob, kill businessman in Bayelsa

Gunmen, suspected to be armed robbers, yesterday robbed and killed a businessman in his office, opposite Ekeki Motor Park, Yenagoa.

The businessman, who was simply identified as Cletus, was said to have been trailed to his office in the early hours and stabbed him several times in the head until he died. The assailant were said to have left with an undisclosed amount of money, his mobile phone and highlander jeep, packed opposite the office.

The News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) correspondent, who visited the scene, saw neighbours mourning him. His body was discovered by his workers when they resumed for duty.

The deceased, in his late 40s, was said to be a quiet businessman who had many businesses in the metropolis.

Spokesman, Police Command in Bayelsa, ASP Musa Mohammed, said investigation into the matter had begun.
