

300 Level Varsity Student Shot Dead In Ondo

New Telegraph-Admin

2 hours ago

2 minute read

A 300-level Linguistics student of the Adekunle Ajasin University (AAUA), Akungba, Akoko, Ondo State, simply identified himself as a student of the university. He learnt that the gunmen killed him in one of the private students' hostels in the town.

The motive for the attack is not yet known. Reacting to the development yesterday, the Vice Chairman, National Association of University Students of Nigeria (NAUN), Comrade Oladele Emmanuel, called on security agents and the management of the university to book the culprits to book.

“The circumstances surrounding this tragedy remain unclear, leaving us all with questions and a deep sense of loss. “In tin

“It is imperative that justice prevails swiftly, and the perpetrators of this heinous act are held accountable. “The university event will be met with the full force of the law and diligent investigative efforts.

“The death of Emmanuel is not just a loss to his family and friends, but to the entire AAUA community. “His potential and environment are irreplaceable. “We mourn his untimely departure and extend our deepest condolences to his loved ones di

“We call on all students, staff, and the wider AAUA community to remain vigilant and report any information that may as

“We must come together to en- sure that our university remains a safe and nurturing environment for everyone.

“The management of AAUA is hereby urged to enhance security measures around the campus and surrounding areas to pr security patrols, better lighting, and more accessible emergency services are critical steps towards ensuring our safety