A Lagos State High Court, Ikeja, presided over by Justice Lateef Lawal-Akapo, has sentenced a man, Adeola Agbonrin, to 21 years imprisonment for manslaughter.

Justice Lawal-Akapo arrived at the verdict following the guilty plea of Agbonrin to the one-count brought against him by the Lagos State Government.

It would be recalled that the jailed Agbonrin was initially charged with the murder of one Martha Farinmade before applying for a plea bargain.

Specifically, the convict was first arraigned on January 31, 2013 before the same court. He was thereafter re-arraigned on an information contained in a charge designated ID/99C/15, dated July 3, 2024, wherein he was alleged of the manslaughter of Farinmade.
