Reliable sources from the community told New Telegraph that problem began for the woman when she attempted to rescue her grandson from his father who had severed his penis in a suspected ritual attack at night.

Although Police Public Relations Officer, Abia State Police Command, ASP Maureen Chinaka, who promised to get back to newsmen was yet to do so as at the time of filing this report, New Telegraph gathered that Alozie had attacked his son, severed his penis which made the boy to give a loud shout that attracted his grandmother.

Sources said that angered that his plan has being foiled by his mother, the tricycle rider attacked his mother and hacked her to death with a machete before neighbours could respond to their cry. A close source and an eyewitness told New Telegraph that nemesis later caught up with the tricycle rider as he fell into a pit in his bid to escape from the scene of the incident.
