

Taiwo Jimoh

Woman stabs neighbour's son to death in Lagos

A 19-year-old woman, Fatimo Agboke, has been arrested for fatally stabbing her neighbour's son, Farouk Azeez, during a confrontation in the Ijegan area of Lagos State. It was learnt that the incident occurred around 9:20 p.m. on September 9, 2024.

The State Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), SP Benjamin Hundeyin, in a statement yesterday said the suspect reportedly got into a fight with the 20-year-old victim, during which she allegedly grabbed a broken bottle and stabbed the victim in the neck, resulting in his death.

Hundeyin said in an attempt to rush the deceased to the hospital for medical attention were in vain, as he tragically passed away on the way to the hospital.

He said: "On September

9, 2024, a complaint was received from the Ijegan area of the state, at Isheri-Oshun Division by a man that a neighbour had an argument with his son.

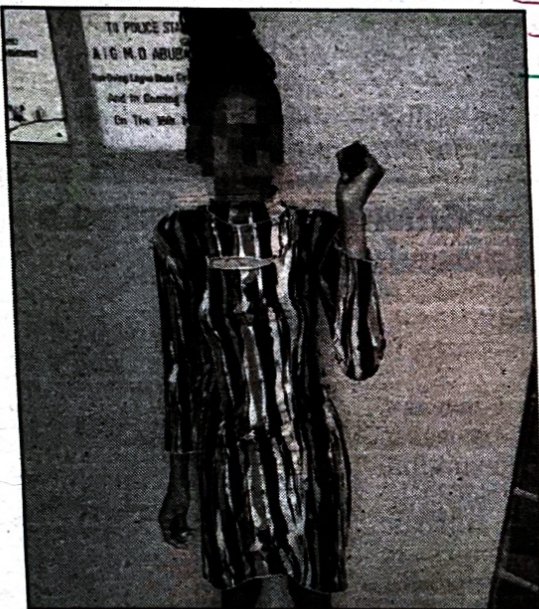

"The victim was stabbed with a broken bottle on his neck by Agboke, which caused him grievous bodily harm. He gave up the ghost during an attempt to rush to a hospital for medical attention.

"The division raced to the scene where the lifeless body of the deceased was seen on the ground, facing up in a pool of blood with a deep cut on his neck.

The corpse has been removed and deposited at Mainland General Hospital in Yaba for autopsy."

Hundeyin stated that the suspect had been arrested and detained, adding that an investigation was underway to uncover the incident's circumstances.

The suspect

Okey Maduforo
AWKA

The Anambra State Police Command has summoned two president-generals of Enugwu Ukwu and Nawfia communities, following growing tension in the area over the killing of three youths from Enugwu-Ukwu.

Recall that last Monday three persons from Enugwu-Ukwu were killed by suspected gunmen at a bush said to be the boundary of the two towns, while five others escaped with bullet wounds.

Police summons 2 Anambra PGs, over killing of 3 Enugwu-Ugwu youths

One of the survivors had alleged that he got a call from someone who asked him to come with his people to the said bush to inspect something and on getting there they were asked to lie down and when they tried to enquire why they opened fire on them.

According to the Police Public Relations Officer, SP Tochikwu Ikenga, the Command has summoned the two President Generals of the communities for talks aimed at preventing possible breakdown of law and order.

At the moment it is not clear yet what the outcome of the meeting with the Police Commissioner Nnaghe Obono Itam, would be, but since the incident there are fears of reprisal attacks from the youths of Enugwu Ukwu who are said to be pointing accusing fingers at