

Man Confesses To Killing Okada Rider In Kwara

Stephen Olufemi Oni

6 mins ago

2 minute read

SHARE

A 38-year-old suspect, Peter Samuel, has confessed to the killing of an okada rider, Rafiu Akao, at Oke-Oy of Kwara State.

The incident reportedly occurred at Asunlere area of Oke-Oyi on November 4. Fielding questions from you alongside four others involved in the incident by the State Commissioner of Police, Victor Olaiya, Peter Sa of the okada rider" in an attempt to snatch the new motorcycle bought by the deceased.

Speaking on the tragic incident, the Commissioner of Police said: "On November 4, at about 2109 hrs, a report was received from the Asunlere community, Oke-Oyi, Ilorin, Kwara State.

"Three men, namely Abdulrasheed Ola Sheu, Ismail Muhammed, and others, arrived at Oke-oyi Police Division and found a body lying near a stream within the area.

"Upon receiving the report, detectives were swiftly dispatched to the scene. Photographic evidence was taken and a forensic team was called to the scene. The body was found with signs of violence around the neck, indicating that the head was severed. "The body was subsequently evacuated and taken to the Federal Medical Teaching Hospital morgue, pending an autopsy."