Security forces in Imo State have neutralised four, arrested five others after a gunfight with individuals belonging to the People of Biafra (IPOB) and its armed wing, the Eastern Security Network (ESN), in Ezioha, Eziana Autonomous Government Area.

The state police spokesperson, Henry Okoye, who disclosed yesterday, said that the operation also extended to emphasising the government's dedication to ensuring the safety of all communities in the state.

He said: "During this operation, security forces successfully neutralised four suspected terrorists and arrested five others after a gunfight with the terrorists."
