

2 Killed, Church, Houses Burnt In Fresh Chibok Attack

Ahmed Miringa

January 13, 2025

1 minute read

SHARE

At least two people were reported killed when suspected Boko Haram members invade Bamzir village in t Borno State in the early hours of yesterday.

The insurgents also razed down a church and residential building after looting foodstuffs without any res of anonymity, said the incident took place at about 2 am when the villagers were asleep.

New Telegraph in your inbox

Subscribe to our newsletter to receive the latest news updates i

Enter your email