Bauchi State Police Command has arrested one Nuru Isah, aged 50, who allegedly killed his second wife, Wasila Abdullahi, 24.

The Command's Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Ahmed Wakil, who disclosed this in a statement yesterday, said that on Saturday, the command was alerted of an alleged culpable homicide incident near Government Girls College, Fadamam Mada area of Bauchi.

He noted that the event arose from a misunderstanding between one Nuru Isah, aged 50, a business man at Central Market Bauchi, and his second wife, Wasila Abdullahi, aged 24, concerning handling food ingredients and fruits designated for breaking the Ramadan fast, which escalated into a violent confrontation.

Wakil stated that: "Preliminary investigations indicate that the suspect, Nuru Isah, is accused of using a cane to strike his wife, which resulted in her collapsing and becoming unconscious within their matrimonial residence.

“The victim was subsequently transported to Abubakar Tafawa Belewa University Teaching Hospital (ATBUTH), Bauchi, where medical personnel confirmed her dead.”

He added that Bauchi State Police Command had initiated a thorough investigation into the incident and has apprehended the suspect, saying that the cane purportedly utilised in the assault has been recovered as an exhibit, and the deceased has been placed in the mortuary pending autopsy procedures.

According to the statement, the State Commissioner of Police, Auwal Muhammad, has assured the public that the commitment to ensuring justice remains a priority for the command.
