

Ex-Police Officer Allegedly Kills 2 Family Members, One Other Over Land Dispute In Badagry

 New Telegraph April 3, 2025 2 minute read

SHARE

The Yovoyan Community in Badagry area of Lagos State, was thrown into mourning on Tuesday morning when an ex-police officer, allegedly shot and killed two family members and

A Correspondent of the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) learnt that Mr Richard Atideka, Mrs Latevi Atideka, both from Yovoyan community, and Mr Muji Onilude from the neighboring Gt

A survivor of the attack, Mr David Atideka, recounted the harrowing experience, stating that the incident occurred between 2:00 a.m. and 2:30 a.m. in the Atideka compound.

"I was inside my room discussing with my wife when I stepped out to urinate. As I did, I saw two armed men entering the compound. I quickly hid nearby.

"They entered my room, asked for me, and immediately shot my wife in the head. Out of fear, I ran to inform my elder brother, but when I arrived, I found his lifeless body—he had been

He further alleged that he saw his elder brother, the suspect, the ex-police officer, along with another armed person, leaving the compound after killing his wife and brother.

New Telegraph in your inbox

Subscribe to our newsletter to receive the latest news updates instantly!

Enter your email

Sign up

"The person I saw was my brother, the police officer. I recognised him clearly," he said. NAN learnt that the alleged suspected killer had been in a long-standing dispute with his brother.