

2 brothers on driving practice in Katsina, accused of livestock theft, lynched by mob

A 35-year-old man, Gaddafi Isah, and Badamasi Isah, aged 30, have been beaten to death by a mob over the alleged theft of livestock at Katsayal village in the Sandamu Local Government Area of Katsina State.

This was made known by a counter-insurgency expert focused on the Lake Chad region, Zagazola Makama, in a post on his X handle.

According to him, intelligence sources revealed that the two victims had driven their father's vehicle to the outskirts of the village to learn to drive.

He stated that, in the process of the practice, a mob approached and accused them of stealing livestock.

He added that the mob surrounded the two men and beat them severely, causing them to sustain varying degrees of injuries.

The victims were rescued by security forces who were deployed to the scene and rushed to the Community Health Centre in Sandamu for treatment, but they were later confirmed dead by a medical doctor," he posted.

He also disclosed that the vehicle the deceased victims were driving was also damaged during the attack.

He noted that the police had launched an investigation into the incident, and efforts were underway to apprehend the perpetrators responsible for the attack.

When contacted, the spokesperson of the state police command, Abubakar Aliyu, did not respond to calls made to his telephone line.

Bandits attack Sokoto community, kill 3 fishermen, injure 2 others

Umar Abdullahi

The Lakurawa bandits yesterday attacked Sanyinna Community in Tangaza Local Government Area of Sokoto State, killing three fishermen in the process.

Local sources in the community stated that the bandits attacked and killed the fishermen yesterday morning while going about their business.

The bandits were also reported to have attacked

Sutti and Takkau villages in Tangaza Local Government Area of the state on Monday, injuring two people.

Garzali Raka, Special Assistant to the Council Chairman on Security, confirmed the incident, stating that the bandits stole livestock, including cows, camels, sheep and goats.

Raka praised security operatives for swiftly responding to the attack, deploying additional personnel and engaging the bandits in a gun battle.
