

Police confirm 2 dead as rival cult groups clash in Delta community

The Delta State Police Public Relations Officer, SP Bright Edafe, yesterday confirmed the death of two persons as rival cult groups clashed in Obiaruku Community.

Edafe who responded to a WhatsApp message sent to him by our correspondent in Warri, confirmed the report without disclosing details.

The deceased were killed as Ekiye and Vikings cult groups engaged in a clash on Sunday evening.

It's not clear if the deceased were members of any of the cult groups. They were killed at different locations in the town.

One of them was accosted in a drinking bar by members of the Ekiye confraternity, who shot recklessly to scare people away.
