

2 Dead, 1 Injured As Petroleum Tanker Explodes On Lagos -Ibadan Expressway

Taiwo Jimoh and Yemi Olakitan

June 12, 2025

2 minute read

SHARE

Two persons have reportedly died and one other sustained injury in a tanker explosion at the Olowotedo area, directly in front of the Nasrul-Lah Expressway.

An eyewitness account said the driver of the petrolladen tanker coming from Lagos was heading towards Ogun State when the unfortunate inci

The witness said the driver of the tanker was trying to avoid crushing a commercial bus at the U-turn when the driver of the tanker lost control a resulting in an explosion.

It was observed that during fire three trucks, including the tanker and two other buses were consumed in the inferno.

One of the firefighters who didn't mention is name said two persons died and one person sustained varying degrees of injury during the explosi

A welder close to the scene of the accident who simply identified himself as Femi, said a driver who brought gas for him just left few minutes aft

Femi said a commercial bus was about to overtake the truck when the driver was making efforts to Make a U-turn at the NASFAT junction, the te fell and spill it's content on the road and later exploded.