

Edo: Farmer Killed, Buried In Shallow Grave By Employees

Francis Ogbuagu

June 16, 2025

2 minute read

SHARE

Tragedy struck Igueze village in Ovia North East Local Government Area of Edo State as a 56-year-old farmer, Mr. Henry Oyagbomwan, was grue farm workers after selling pineapples worth ₦900,000.

The incident reportedly occurred on May 13, 2025, shortly after the sale was concluded. Police sources confirmed that the suspects, after collecti fled to various locations.

In a chilling twist, the assailants contacted the family after the murder and demanded a ransom of ₦60 million. However, the family insisted on s suspects later reduced their demand to ₦300,000, which was paid, after which they severed all communications.