

3 Arrested For Murder Of Farmer In Taraba

New Telegraph

July 14, 2025

2 minute read

The Chairman of Ibi Local Government Area of Taraba State, Iliya Jibu, has confirmed the arrest of three suspects linked to the murder of a farmer on his farm in Gidan Kye, Sarkin Kudu, within Ibi Local Government Council.

Speaking to journalists via telephone yesterday, Jibu expressed concern over the killing and pledged to pursue the case until justice is served. "I

How can an innocent farmer go to his farm to struggle for his livelihood and be killed while working? "This is indeed unacceptable. His killers must

We love each other, and no one can take the law into his or her own hands," he said. The chairman criticised the conduct of some security operations and the efforts of Governor Agbu Kefas.

"We were reliably informed that those who masterminded the killing of Adamu Sale were initially arrested but later released, and even shielded by

"It was only after we went out of our way that we succeeded in getting them re-arrested. We will never give room for criminals to continue to threaten

He identified the arrested suspects as Nanfan Nimmak, Amos, and Pastor Volnap, all said to be from the Tarok ethnic group of nearby Plateau State, which has become a safe haven for kidnappers, bandits, or other criminal elements.