

Troops Kill 17 Terrorists, Recover Cache Of Ammunition In Borno

Ahmed Miringa

August 5, 2025

1 minute read

Troops have killed 17 Boko Haram/ISWAP fighters and recovered and recovered a large cache of ammunition in multiple clearance operations in

In a statement yesterday, Northeast Joint Task Force of Operation Hadin Kai said they recorded huge success against terrorists in the general are said: "The operations, including fighting patrols, ambushes, clearance and logistics strangulation operations, stretched from Michika LGA in Adai Borno State.

"This led to the neutralisation of several terrorists, recovery of assorted arms and ammunition, discovery and safe detonation of Improvised Expl terrorists' logistics items."