

Army: Troops Killed 3 Kidnap Suspects, Rescued Victim In Delta

Emmanuel Onani

August 20, 2025

1 minute read

Troops of 63 Brigade (Section 1) of Operation Delta Safe killed three kidnappers in Otulo Forest, Aniocha North Local Government Area of Delta State, and rescued a female victim in the process, the Nigerian Army revealed yesterday.

It noted that the “daring operation” was a product of credible intelligence report, which enabled troops to track the the suspects for a week, before they were finally taken out. In a statement signed yesterday by its spokesperson, Captain Iliyasu Rijau, the Brigade said:

“In a daring and bold operations, troops of 63 Brigade/Sector 1 Joint Task Force Operation Delta Safe along side tracker team from the Delta State Government House Asaba, have neutralized three kidnappers and rescued a lady who was being held captive in the Otulo Forest area of Aniocha North Local Government Area of Delta State.