

Gunmen Kill Benue Royal Father

A traditional ruler in Benue State, Chief Tyoper Abaa was Sunday evening gunned down by a gang of suspected armed robbers.

The incident came barely three days after a lecturer with College of Education Katsina-Ala was killed by some members of the underworld who are still being hunted by the police.

Abaa, the district head of Asase, a suburb of Makurdi, was shot at close range by the

From Abel Orih Idoma

in Makurdi

assailants who stormed his palace at about 5:00 pm Sunday.

The State Police Public Relations Officer (ASP) Samuel Jinadu, who confirmed the incident, said some suspects have already been arrested and are helping the police in their investigations.