

Police, 3 Others Killed in Bullion Van Robbery

Dare-devil armed robbers Tuesday killed a policeman and three others when they attacked a bullion van belonging to yet-to-be-known bank at Achingali in Obowo Local Government of Imo State.

Those killed included a school child, a woman who were passers-by and the driver of the bullion van

---

*From Amby Uneze
in Owerri*

---

including a police escort. The stray bullets of the armed robbers who fired sporadically to dispose the bullion van from the occupants hit the kid and th woman.

According to an eye witness, the armed robbers (whose numbers were not known by the time of this report, including the brand of vehicle they operated with), traced the bullion van from Umuahia. The Bullion van was heading to Owerri.

As at about 2.30pm on Tuesday when the incident occurred, bodies of those killed and Naira notes were still at the sport the incident occurred.

THISDAY at press time could not confirm the bank that owns the bullion van as well as the specific amount of cash carted away by the robbers, as there were no official of the bank available to confirm it.

The Imo State Police Public Relations Officer, DSP Isa Bala Mohammed confirmed the incident and stated that investigations had started, as manhunt was on to track down the bandits.

Illegal Developers in Lagos'