

Police Kill Five Students

Police in Nasarawa State yesterday shot five students of the state Polytechnic protesting the murder of their lecturer.

Policemen shot indiscriminately on the protesting students, in an attempt to disperse them during which five were killed. The wounded among them are currently receiving treatment in a hospital in Lafia.

The killing of the lecturer brought to four, persons killed in in two weeks since the first report of a syndicate specialising in causing manhood disappearance in Keana and Agyaragu areas of the state.

NASARAWA

From Cheke Emmanuel in Lafia

In Lafia metropolis and its environ, people go about holding their private parts with one hand as a preventive play.