

Emerhor's Son Killed

Chairman of Standard Alliance Insurance Group, Olorogun O'tega Emerhor, Wednesday night, August 2, 2006 lost his only son, Ijamani Emerhor to suspected armed robbers.

The 18 year-old Ijamani was on holiday in Nigeria and was expected to return to his United Kingdom base on Tuesday, this week before his life was cut short by unknown armed men. He was said to have been shot at close range along the Lekki-Epe Expressway in Lagos.

According to an eye witness account, two men riding on a motorbike popularly called Okada were said to have shot him in the head at point blank after dispossessing him of his mobile phone.
