

Death Toll in Bodo Crisis Rises

Number of deaths in the ongoing inter-gang clash in Bodo city, Gokanna Local Government Area of Rivers has risen, following a renewed fight that took two more lives.

The clash, which allegedly erupted due to political rivalry between some politicians in the area, have continued regardless of efforts by the police and other security agencies to stop it.

 Police sources disclosed that one of the groups killed two members of a rival group on Saturday.

NYSC Forms Nationwide