

sistent with the principles of the rule of law and due process.

3 Killed in Lagos Cult Clash

At least, three students of the Lagos State University (LASU), in Ojo Local Government Area of the State, lost their lives when suspected members of two rival cult groups engaged themselves in a bloody war at PPL area of Okokomaiko.

Three other students of the University, whose names were given as Bolade Femi, Ogunyemi Olufemi and Odunobi Oluwasesan were arrested by police over their alleged involvement in the bloody clash, which almost grounded business and vehicular activities through out the day.