

One Die In Communal Clash

Calm is gradually returning to the two neighbouring towns of Ifitedunu and Abagana, located, in Dunukofia and Njikoka LGAs of Anambra State, after last Sunday's clash between resident indigenes of Ebonyi State and indigenes of the two neighbouring communities led to the death of a youth. The feud was said to have been sparked off at Oye-Agu junction, a busy market site located along an intersection between the Enugu-Onitsha old road and Awkuzu-Ifitedunu-Eziowelle roads, by a row between an indigene of Umunnachi, a neighbouring town, located in Dunukofia LGA, who was said to have come visiting his mother's kinsmen in Ifitedunu, and an Ebonyi State indigene resident in the community.

Over 90,000 Veterans