

2 Killed, 6 Injured as School Balcony Collapses

Two students of King Ado Secondary School in Jankara area of Lagos Island were yesterday killed, while several others sustained serious injuries when one of the school balconies collapsed.

Eye witness account has it that the tragedy struck at about 2p.m., as a result of over crowding.

The two students were confirmed dead at the Lagos General Hospital, where they were taken for medical attention.

The injured, numbering more than 10, are receiving medical treatment at private hospitals on Princess Street and Adeniji Adele road, Lagos Island .