

Police Investigate Bakare's Death

Lagos State Police Command is investigating the killing of Mr Ibrahim Bakare, a Peoples Democratic Party (PDP) chieftain in Lagos, who was shot on the Falomo Bridge, Ikoyi, in the early hours on Monday.

Its spokesman, Mr Olubode Ojajuni, said "the police is not in a position to confirm if the killing of Bakare was a political assassination or a robbery incident. It is true we have an incidence of the killing of one Mr Ibrahim Bakare, which the police is investigating," he said.
