

Militants Kill 3 Policemen in Another Raid

Barely three days after militants detonated bombs in the compounds of Shell Petroleum Development Company and Nigerian Agip Oil Company, again in the early hours of yesterday, they stormed another facility in Obagi in Ogba-Egbema-Ndoni Local Government Area of Rivers State belonging to Elf Petroleum where they killed three mobile policemen.

Although it could not be

---

From Chika Amanze-Nwachuku, Fidelia Okwuonu in Lagos and Ahamefula Ogbu in Port Harcourt

---

ascertained, police sources claimed to have killed two of the militants in the ensuing shoot out but added that the attackers took away the bodies of their colleagues while fleeing the area.

The militants were alleged to have stormed the facility at about 3am in a bus dressed in military fatigues but on getting to the gate of the facility, they allegedly sighted policemen on duty and immediately opened fire on them killing the three policemen whose remains* have been deposited in the mortuary.

The rest of the policemen were alleged to have taken evasive measures before returning fire where the two militants were allegedly killed though they succeeded in taking away their bodies.