

Ilorin Clash Leaves One Dead

No Fewer than Twelve Persons were arrested yesterday by men of the Kwara State Police Command following a bloody clash between two rival groups in Ilorin, the state capital. The Clash which happened at about 7.30pm on Thursday, led to the death of One Mr. Agbaje, suspected to be a leader of one of the groups.

THISDAY checks revealed that the crisis started when the deceased allegedly led his group to seize motorcycles belonging to some youths in the Idi-Ape area of Ilorin. When elders from the area sent emissaries to him to release the items, he refused and allegedly beat some members of the team.
