

3 Students Roasted in FCE Abeokuta

Tragedy struck early hours of Saturday morning at the Federal College of Education (FCE), Osiele, Abeokuta when three female students were roasted to death in an inferno that gutted their hostel.

Those who lost their lives in the inferno are, Miss Ogungbuyi Temitayo Esther, a pre- NCE in agriculture, Miss Ajayi Gbonjubola, 200 level in primary education studies and Miss. Olatunbosun Odunayo who was studying Yoruba language.

When THISDAY visited the institution yesterday, aggrieved students in their hundreds barricaded all entrances leading to the campus, protesting what they called the insensitivity of the school management to their plights.
