

Robbers Kill One, Cart Away N20M

Dare devil armed robbers yesterday struck at Wappa, Fagge, area of the Kano city Centre, inhabited by pararel Foreign Exchange operators, killed one person and made away with money worth over N20 million.

Eye witness told Thisday that that the armed robbers, numbering nine drove into Wappa, base of pararel Foreign Exchange operators in a dark coloured Kia jeep and a dark blue BMW car under the pretext of doing the business of currency exchange.

They were said to have concealed their guns to beat a team of policemen on guard to gain entrance into the shop of the unsuspecting operators of the bureau de change.

It was learnt that the robbers thereafter brought out their guns forcing the foreign exchange operators to surrender monies found in their shops.
