

rated on Friday by the ex-governor and his

Igodo, 15 Others Killed in Inter-Cult Clash

There were indications that a serious cult clash between rival groups yesterday claimed the notorious leader of Deegbam, Prince Clark Igodo who had been declared wanted by the State Security Service (SSS) which has placed a N5 million reward for anyone with information on him.

Sources said that Igodo with about 15 members of his group had a clash in the creeks last Monday night with another group called the Outlaws and led by Soboma George, a known figure that had also been declared wanted by the police some time last year.